

Fact Sheet

Location

The Kasbah BAHA BAHA is located in the village of Nkob at 1050 meters above sea level on the road connecting the Draa valley and the Ziz valley, in mountainous, desert and oasis area rich in vernacular architectural and cultural heritage.

Nkob is the only village in Morocco that counts more than forty Kasbahs all built with rammed earth.

The origin of its name came from a cave named N'akb, located northeast of the hill where the village is located, which used to serve as a pit stop for nomadic tribes of Ait Atta.
